

Wapato Temple #47 Pythian Sisters Code of Ethics

We endorse and promote the following values and ethics to achieve the principles and mission of the Wapato Temple #47 Pythian Sisters.

The Wapato Temple #47 Pythian Sisters is a professional organization made up of volunteers who believe in focusing on activities that support the elderly, the houseless, and the youth in our Gaston, Oregon community and we hereby establish the following Code of Ethics to guide us in the performance of our duties.

CORE VALUES:

1. Partner effectively to achieve our goals
2. Be a good leader by acting with integrity, openness, and respect
3. Seize opportunities with curiosity and initiative
4. Respectfully listen to others' ideas and explain your position
5. Be willing to disagree and commit
6. Put forth effort and execute to your commitments

CODE OF ETHICS:

Integrity: We recognize the authority of our organization as a symbol of public faith and accept that faith as a public trust, ensuring confidentiality of the individuals whom we serve, and demanding integrity in all that we do.

Cooperation: We recognize the value of cooperation and stand committed to work with other organizations and the public to achieve results that provide a common benefit to all.

Leadership and Respect: We recognize the importance of respect in our dealings with all people and shall demonstrate an unfailing commitment to the fair treatment of all individuals without regard to religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, culture, politics, age, or race.

Communication and Accountability: We recognize the necessity of high performance standards and will strive to maintain a degree of excellence in the performance of our duties, ensuring public confidence in the mission of Wapato Temple #47 Pythian Sisters. We strive to communicate effectively in all we do. As an organization, we strive for excellence.
